LP ILLINOIS ANNOUNCES CANDIDATE'S BOOTH AT MALTA DAYS

The Libertarian Party of Illinois (“LP Illinois”) is pleased to announce that Illinois governor candidate Lex Green and U.S. Senate candidate Mike Labno will host a booth at Malta Days in Malta on Saturday, June 12th.

The event will take place at from noon until 4 p.m. and will be held at Lion’s Park on 5th Street between East Jackson and East Monroe Streets in Malta.

We encourage voters to attend and find out more about the Libertarian view on government in this most important election year. LP Illinois plans to place our candidates on the ballot for this falls election and as a result will offer the citizens of Illinois an alternative to business as usual in the state.

For questions or for further information on the booth, please contact Mike Fogelsanger, Activism Director for the Libertarian Party of Illinois, at: 815/899-2351 or activism@lpillinois.org.

The Libertarian Party of Illinois is a political home for those who value honesty, fairness, respect, responsibility and compassion.
